The Oil Battle
21 American Nations
2 Great Bear Fighters
Wise Amarillo, Tex.

By Arthur Brisbane

NEWTON, KAN., Jan. 18.—A heavyweight battle for the world's oil championship is on between Standard Oil of New York and the Shell Oil Company, largely owned by the British government. Shell had been buying oil from Russia, selling at a profit in India, and other convenient markets. Britain threatened Russia's representatives, cut off commercial relations, and British oil companies stopped buying Russia's oil. That was round two.

Intelligent Standard Oil of New York said, quoting a well known play: "If you don't want her, I want her." Standard buys Russia's oil, sells it in India and elsewhere, saving a haul of 5,000 miles from our home wells. That is round two.

The Shell Company and Great Britain rage. The British oil fox having cut off its tail, requests New York's Standard Oil to "be decent enough" to do the same. The Standard Oil of New York, like the longtailed foxes in the fable, can't quite see the point and continues buying and selling Russian oil. That our British brothers call "Yankee treachery." End of round three.

The British Shell Company starts round four with a price-cutting war, in the Indian oil market, causing Standard a loss of four million dollars annually, according to Standard's own statements. But Shell oil will have to do better than that, to annoy Standard Oil seriously.

A loss of four or forty million dollars is catalogued by Standard Oil as "petty cash," and later, in other parts of the world, Standard may show the British gentlemen what a real price war means.

El Imparcial and other newspapers in Spain are displeased with President Calsag's warm reception in Cuba. Natural, because this country took Cuba from Spain and gave the beautiful island to the Cuban people. El Imparcial says this country has ruined rights in Cuba. It has reserved only one, the right "to intervene for the preservation of Cuban independence." We not only made Cuba independent, but guarantee that she shall remain so.

One hundred and four delegates, representing 21 nations of North and South America, including the United States, are gathered in a great conference hall in Havana. Those 21 nations are the greatest power for peace in the world, also the greatest power for war, if they stick together.

HEFLIN DODGES FIGHT; PARTY PUTS O. K. ON ROBINSON

"I was merely expressing my own opinion," Hefflin said, "and I thought the matter was so serious, unwarranted, indiscreet and imprudent."

"NOT ATTACKING ALL"
"He attacked no person and treated the Catholics to the same. He almost had been in his eyes. He never said a word about worth Protestants. He did not even mention George Washington, the master of Mason."

"I am not attacking all Catholics"
Some of them have done this thing. I am talking about the deadly Catholic machine. It is getting its grip on the machinery of the government here in Washington."

"I have a right to speak of authors and stationers here and it is none of the business of the Senator from Arkansas. No one who has talked to me has reproved me for it."

Hefflin declared that those who took advantage of me in my absence from the conference to attack me were cowardly and that they "do not dare to get up here and face me here on the floor."

CHARGES "WHITEWASH"
"I didn't expect the conference, however, to remove him," Hefflin said, referring to Robinson. "I wonder how many Senators knew he was going to bring up the question of his leadership today."

"Everyone outside of here has told me that they thought Senator Johnson's attack on me was outrageous and unparliamentary and agreed with them."

"This question was taken up by my absence. A sort of whitewash resolution was proposed."

"I am looking now to see in the press that I was rebuked by the party conference today—in the last part of the press."

Hefflin said that while he had thought Senator Robinson should be removed as party leader for his "strange" action yesterday, he had not considered what would be the result of such action and had not intended to press for it. Senator Robinson was not in the chamber as Hefflin began his speech.

"I was angry at the Senator from Arkansas yesterday," Hefflin continued, "specifically naming Governor Smith again. Hefflin declared, 'It will be a sad day for the Democratic party when it takes up with a weak, a mulish, a Tammanyite and a Roman Catholic.'"

TWITTED BY MOSES.
Hefflin asserted that those who attacked him the conference were told by one Senator that if "Al Smith were nominated his State would be Republican."

"What Senator was that?" Hefflin asked. "Senator Moses, Republican."

"What call is the Senator from New Hampshire doing, calling me about our secrets?" Hefflin replied.

"Now will the Senator tell the Senate, the Governor and the country just what happened in the Democratic conference he did not attend?" Moses said.

"No one will think that I am Republican," Moses said, "but I have been informed what happened and that was that the conference voted to let me in to favor of the Democratic leader. And that one explained that he wanted a vote for the Democratic party but did not want to do so by formal resolution."

"I repeatedly stated I expected the party to vote as it did," Hefflin stated. "That one who did not vote for the resolution and he did not but he did not want to be rebuked on me."

MOSES JERES HIM.
After half an hour, Senator Robinson reached the Chamber and took the seat on the Democratic side.

How Hefflin Lost His 'Bitter Hate' Battle

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Senator Hefflin could not muster even one vote in his own behalf at the Democratic conference today when his challenge of Senator Robinson's leadership was an issue. There was one dissenting vote to the resolution of confidence in Robinson, Senator Trammell of Florida explaining he opposed the resolution but not out of enmity for Robinson or friendship for Hefflin. Senator Reed (Missouri), absent, sent his proxy in favor of Robinson.

Ashurst, Dease, Smith (South Carolina), Hayden, Dill, Stevens, Neely and Hefflin stayed away from the caucus.

Sensors Randall and Edwards are absent from Washington. All others voted for Robinson.

New York Governor and his "co-politicians."

The one negative vote was cast by Trammell of Florida, who said he did not regard the bill between Robinson and Hefflin as a matter for party action. Robinson and Senator Black of Alabama, Hefflin's colleague, did not vote.

In all, a dozen of the Democratic Senators were absent from the conference. Three of them, those of South Carolina, Dill of Washington and Neely of West Virginia, sat nearby in the Senate chamber, where proceedings were vigorously halted by the widespread Democratic absence.

Hefflin had demanded Robinson's removal from the Mexican state fund committee, and the Democratic conference voted this confidence in the leader's work on that committee. The text of the resolution follows:

"Resolved, that this conference of Democratic members of the Senate express its confidence in the leadership of Senator Robinson and in his service on the special committee named to investigate the alleged secret Mexican documents."

The discussion behind the closed doors of the conference room began immediately after Robinson had called the meeting to order and had turned the chair over to Edward D. Beware.

HEFLIN IS ATTACKED.
Speaker of Montana moved a vote of confidence and it was on that proposition that the debate opened. Bruce of Maryland made an extended address in which he assailed Hefflin for his attacks on the Catholic church.

"I take the position that the conference acting between Senator Robinson and Senator Hefflin was voting in the negative."

"I take the position that the conference acting between Senator Robinson and Senator Hefflin was voting in the negative."

"I take the position that the conference acting between Senator Robinson and Senator Hefflin was voting in the negative."

"I take the position that the conference acting between Senator Robinson and Senator Hefflin was voting in the negative."

HEFLIN PLAYED BY BAY STATE LEGISLATORS

Seeing Senator Hefflin of Alabama as a "baker," two Democratic Senators and eleven representatives of the Massachusetts Legislature, today sent a joint telegram to Governor Graves of Alabama, with a plea for a Democratic caucus in that State to repudiate Senator Hefflin's statements made yesterday in Congress.

The telegram said in part: "We, as well as you, know that Senator Hefflin does not speak either for the South or for his own State. For this reason we Democrats of Massachusetts call upon you as Governor to call a Democratic caucus of the members of your Legislature and repudiate this man Hefflin for his assault in the Senate on the Roman Catholic Church."

The telegram was signed by Senators Robert E. Barker of South Boston and William L. Hennessey of Lawrence, Representatives Rev. Roland D. Sawyer, Edward J. Kelley, Minority leader Thomas H. Carr, Francis X. Coyne, Peter J. Fitzgerald, Anthony J. McNulty, Joseph A. Logan, Edward J. Sullivan, James E. Egan, Joseph W. Leyden and Timothy J. McDonough.

The message was drawn up by Francis J. Fineman, president of the Democratic Club of Massachusetts.

Runaway Tries to Join Navy, But Mother Outwits Him

There are several reasons why Aubrey McFarlane of Sargent avenue, Somerville, had to join the Navy.

He is only sixteen; two, he telegraphed his mother his address in Philadelphia after coming away; three, police have him four, he is going to be taken home.

He vanished last Friday with Ernest Wilcox, student of Edgar avenue, Somerville, after obtaining $25 from his mother to buy an overcoat.

Then he wired asking her to telegraph Navy authorities he was seventeen. Wilcox came with him, he said. His mother told the police instead.

MOTHER VISITS 'LOST' TEACHER

Coming, N. Y. Jan. 19 (A. P.)—A mother, who for 15 weeks left up hope that her daughter would be returned to her, today made preparations to visit her daughter, Miss Judith McCune, 23-year-old school teacher who was found in Detroit yesterday.

Ever since the disappearance of the young woman from Johnson City on August 21 last, the mother, Mrs. Jeanie McCune, of Landis, has spent sleepless nights.

Last night she was happy, for her son, Cannon McCune, returned from Detroit with the assurance that the young woman, who had been working as a maid in the home of a wealthy Detroit family and taking treatment for a psychopathic condition at Harper Hospital, was the daughter. He said that his sister, who was still sane for a nervous disorder, which was much worse by an unhappy love affair.

TWO U. S. 'REDS' WITH TROTZKY

Moscow, Jan. 19 (U. S. S.)—The thoroughness of Stalin's suppression of all opposition to the present regime was indicated today when it was learned that among the unknown members of the Trotsky party exiled to Siberia were at least two former naturalized American citizens of the U. S. W. W.

The two fugitives from justice in the United States during Attorney General Palmer's post-war "roundup of Reds," sought refuge with the Soviet government. They had secured government positions, but charged with being of the opposition they were arrested and exiled.

"Bill" Haywood, well known as a radical in the United States, was not among those exiled. He is here and in poor health.

Youth Buys Lady's Hat, 1890 Style, at Auction

Victims of a Paris wardrobe and perhaps a romantic diary of a colorful life, animated Joseph Italy, South Boston youth, won bid on a trunk plastered with stencils and foreign labels at the Boston & Maine Railroad Company's unclaimed baggage auction today.

The trunk cost Italy $2.15. The auctioneer hoisted it over the heads of 300 persons who packed the auction room at 45 Stuart street and Pile tugged it out into the alley where he broke it open.

One bone red velvet hat of the vintage of 1890 reposed within its yawning depths. He clucked it into an ash can.

His friend, Jim Malone, took a chance on a railroad suitcase which contained two brand new men's topsuits bought from a high class home in Boston. They cost him $1.50.

Scores of bundles containing half a dozen umbrellas featured the sale. Only one handle was

WIN FIGHT ON SCHOOL NAME

Fall River, Jan. 19.—Winning a fight of nearly a year, featuring a threatened student strike, protested diploma, petitions and even a mysterious fire in the building, the B. M. C. Purves High School today resumed its old identity following a hectic ten months since the five-year-old name was changed to Fall River High School, in a merger with Technical School.

The reversal took place by a five-to-four vote at the school committee meeting after a stormy session.

Rev. James M. Quinn, advocate of last year's action, pleaded for defeat, but the plea was far-reaching. By the same vote, graduates who say to enable discussion of local points, but the plea was far-reaching. Among the things which had remained undisturbed in the dusty upper regions of the old building which had served as a library since 1868, were leather fire buckets, a multitude of the days when there was no city fire department, an old foot warmer, two pairs of saddle bags and a velvet lined pocket hat holder for the assembly list which always adorned Dr. Hall's desk.

BOSTON SKATERS SAIL ON JAN. 27 FOR OLYMPICS, SAYS BETTY ALDEN

Mrs. Theresa Weld Blanchard and Nat W. Niles Seek Further Honors as Winter Sports Champions at St. Moritz, Switzerland

WHEN MRS. THERESA WELD BLANCHARD FIRST learned the difficult and intricate art of figure skating (that since has made her famous), little could she have dreamed just where and how far across the world her mastery of the skates would carry her. Or into what interesting contests. Her consideration then must have been mainly for hours on hours of practice to make perfection; not of future rewards and glories. But the mastery is hers and now she reaps the glories. As chief feminine star of the American Olympic figure skating team she embarks on January 27 for Switzerland. But her foreign pilgrimage does not end with the Olympic contest.

FAR FROM IT. BERLIN AND then London are both on the Blanchard program. And perhaps they are also on the European pilgrimage Nathaniel W. Niles also takes. With Mrs. Blanchard he shares the honor of being national champion in doubles figure skating, and he occupies the "vice of champion in men's singles. Should his former stay will include appearances in Saint Moritz, in Berlin and also in London. These champions who hail from Boston have an interesting tour before them.

BERLIN'S CONTRIBUTION to the graceful art of figure skating includes competition for the championship of the world for men. Mr. Niles will appear there on February 25 and 26. Mrs. Blanchard appears in the competition for senior lady skaters and in pair skating with Mr. Niles. As Dorothy Weld, sister of Mrs. Blanchard and a skater of great promise, though not yet in the Blanchard category, will be in the competition for junior ladies.

EARLY IN MARCH WE SHALL hear of these three in the Whittington's city. In all probability. At any rate, Mrs. Blanchard will flash gracefully about the fine new rink of the Ice Club in London, seeking a ladies' championship, and there is a possibility that she and Mr. Niles may enter the pair championship contest, hinting, of course, of Mr. Niles' strong over. Three gatherings of ice stars all in a season should put even such skaters as the Niles-Blanchard team on their mettle. And both expect to meet the keenest of competition, for skaters from everywhere, in great numbers, are entered. The best in the world, of course.

MRS. BLANCHARD and MISS DOROTHY WELD ARE SAILING FROM THIS SIDE ON JANUARY 27. Just a bit earlier, on the 24th, via the Aquitania, Mr. and Mrs. Niles and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Houghak. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Badger and Miss Marion Stone have already sailed. Also, Miss Marcel Vinson, with her mother, Mrs. Vinson, and Roger Turner. So all the American skating stars destined to wear the Olympic shield at Saint Moritz are now, or soon will be, on their transatlantic crossing en route to that sparkling, sun-bathed resort high in the Swiss Alps, where the Winter sport is king, and all the world his devotees.

A BRILLIANT PROLOGUE TO SATURDAY'S BRIDAL CELEBRATION, MR. AND MRS. JAMES CUSHING BAYLEY are entertaining on Friday evening at the Country Club, with a large and smart dinner. Their charming bride-elect daughter, Miss Helen Bayley, and her intended, Appleton Brown, are chief guests for the dinner, and only of an importance secondary to the principals are all the young men and girls (some are already matrons) who will be in the stately and impressive wedding entourage on Saturday.

FOUR ATTRACTIVE YOUNG matrons precede the bride and handsome Miss Bayley in her slow procession to the altar in Trinity Church, Saturday, at high noon. They are Mrs. Andrew King, Mrs. Winston, Mrs. John Patterson Duncan, Mrs. W. Scott Blanchard and Mrs. Theodore Gordon Ames. Miss Helen Stone, Miss Elsie Robinson, Miss Anna Sewell and Miss Alberta DuPont complete the cortege of bride attendants. Mr. King, bridegroom-elect, being a Harvard man, naturally includes several classmates of 1921 in his staff, headed by Charles Richard Steadman as best man.

LINCOLN P. BRIGHAM, SPOUSE of the former Miss Dorothy King, and therefore brother-in-law of the bridegroom, is an usher. William King and Putnam King, two brothers, also serve. Persons of place and importance in the local fashionable set will be on hand for the nuptials, particularly as Mr. King is grandson to General Francis Appleton, and from South of the Mason and Dixon line will come the bride to see her blight her truth.

THE WHOLE TOWN IS thinking "operationally" these days. With the opera premiere not much more than a week away, those with reservations not already made are seeking to remedy that situation. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Menard of Cohasset have taken all outgoings of the subscription period and apportioned their preferences. They will be in the end once more in Garden does "Sappho" and when the Vaguerian masterpiece, Tannhauser, renews its magnificence through the Opera House.

OTHER PROMINENT COHABITANTS people of lavishly Grand Opera habit are Mrs. Edward T. Olin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clifford Gammons, Dr. and Mrs. A. Bush Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Peggam and Mrs. Charles W. Gammons. Not once but several times are these names inscribed on the reservations list for the Grand Opera season. The advance sale for the two weeks has been highly satisfying to the committee, this Winter having the fine leadership of H. W. Wendell Endicott, portmanteau traveler, author, and enthusiastic sponsor of the arts.

An unofficial long-range forecast predicts fair skies and normal winter temperatures following the dissipation of the coming storm, but no threat of a cold snap is seen anywhere.

NEW ENGLAND'S NEEDS ARE OUTLINED

Many questions of particular interest to New England are before the U. S. Congress, according to New England Senators and Representatives.

endeavoring to learn those of most interest to this section of the country, for New England Congressmen asked for the opinion of each of the men serving from the six states, and their answers have been compiled in a booklet titled "Washington Southerner to New England."

Here are some excerpts from the opinions of the men "on the ground."

TELLS HOW MEN IN S4 COULD RAISE HER

If officers of the sunken S4 had been able to remain in the control room, one of the submarines could have been at the surface of the water within an hour, Commander Harold E. Saunders of the S4 submarine declared at the inquiry today.

Commander Saunders said, in his opinion, the officers were compelled to flee the control room because of formation of chlorine gas or because of smoke caused by burning insulation.

He cited the case of a German submarine whose tanks were blown by the crew after she sank and whose bow was raised to the surface and the men released.

Unless the six men who lived for days in the forward torpedo room left some written record, the world may never know what went on in the submarine S4 as she plunged to the bottom of the sea off Provincetown.

This was indicated when Commander Saunders testified that the only papers on records found in the submarine thus far are a library book and the battery log.

The last entry in the battery record book is under date of December 24.

5 VETS OF INDIAN WARS SEEK STATE PENSIONS

Five old Indian fighters appeared before the legislative committee on pensions today and asked pensions from the State, similar to those given veterans of other wars. They were William Miles of Dorchester, who helped bury Custer after the massacre at the Little Big Horn in 1875; James Noonan of Dorchester, who campaigned against the Utes and Sioux in 1878; Daniel Callahan of Boston, who fought the battle of Little Canada Point, Kan., on the plains; Joseph A. Charles and Frederick Rappeneberg of Mattapan.

the day before the fatality.

"Nothing has been found which throws any light on or gives any record of what happened," he said.

"The position of the flood valve and other valves, as we found them, together with the planes, indicates the submarine in a perfectly normal way was coming to the surface."

"Whether she was merely plunging or whether her tanks were being blown, we have been unable to determine."

"The only things out of the ordinary are the positions of her periscopes. In their present positions on the submarine, it would be impossible to look out of either periscopes."

Commander Saunders declared it would have been impossible to tow the sunken submarine into shallow water near shore. Danger would be involved anyway, he said, because deep water lay between the S4 position and shallow water.

MYSTERY LIGHT FROM ISLAND STIRS QUEBEC

Quebec, Jan. 19 (A.P.)—Recalling the mystery lights of the Northwest and the north country belief that the "ghost light" which caused the deaths of James Potter, 45, and the three members of his family, word came from Stouffville, O., his former home, that Potter was a prominent capitalist there before he lost a fortune in oil and coal investment.

A victim of the "meddler" in addition to Potter were his wife, Lulu, 42, and their two sons, James, 37, 16, and Robert, 14.

Roomers at the house were aroused late last night when Robert and his mother ran screaming from their apartment. Forty-five minutes later the entire family was dead in a hospital.

"Daddy has given us some cough medicine. I can feel it coming on," Robert cried and collapsed. His mother fell beside him as she called Miss Emily Reider, a trained nurse living at the house.

Miss Reider tried to force an emetic between the locked jaws of the father and the eldest son but failed.

HE GOES BROKE, KILLS WIFE, 2 SONS, SELF

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19 (A.P.)—While police today sought to determine contents of a bottle of "cough medicine" which caused the deaths of James Potter, 45, and the three members of his family, word came from Stouffville, O., his former home, that Potter was a prominent capitalist there before he lost a fortune in oil and coal investment.

A victim of the "meddler" in addition to Potter were his wife, Lulu, 42, and their two sons, James, 37, 16, and Robert, 14.

CHARGED WITH TRICKING HIS FRIENDS

Arrested of fleeing his friends, Fred Sully of Boston was today arrested by State Detective Frank G. Hale said Sully charges of the day.

Male said Sully came out of the jail from James Higgins Boston assistant, in connection with a story that the police were demanding $300 for a truckload of boots held up at the South Boston station.

Higgins, Hale declared, was on a diamond ring security for the hat, but after getting the money it is charged Sully had failed to return.

Hale said Sully got $65 from a Boston man to get his car out of a garage. The man, he said, went to the garage with Sully. Sully left through another exit.

Sully will be arraigned in Boston Municipal Court.

CHEF LECTURES
Visitors to the Martha Lee Kitchen heard Emile Furrer, pastry chef at the Coppley-Plaza, give a lesson in pastry making that kept the attention of all.

By MARTHA LEE
The Martha Lee Kitchen at No. 10, Winthrop square was again filled to capacity when Emile Furrer, pastry chef of the Hotel Coppley-Plaza gave a lesson in pastry making to a large audience of progressive New England housewives.

First Furrer prepared plain pastry, measuring by ounces on a post office scale hastily borrowed from the mailing department. Hereafter graduated measuring cups have sufficed in the Martha Lee Kitchen, which is perhaps the answer to why we have never before had such cream puffs, eclairs, raisin Alaska come out of our ovens.

He is the foundation of Furrer's art. Many of our children come as assistant cities as Providence and Lowell, and everyone expressed themselves as well pleased for their effort to take advantage of this valuable lesson from one who stands on the top rung of his profession.

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETED BREGOR AT JORDAN HALL
Paul Bregor, Boston pianist, gave his first concert at Jordan Hall before a large and exceedingly enthusiastic audience, last night. He made up a lengthy program, which was well arranged and contained interesting and unobtrusive music, from Schubert's A major sonata, Brahms' E-flat minor Intermezzo and the Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel, and pieces by Prokofiev, Casella, Albeniz, Schumann, Chopin and Debussy-Diaghilev.

Mr. Bregor, who has made several appearances as ensemble player in previous seasons, showed marked development in technical equipment, vocal variety and maturity of style. Not only did the program reflect his serious musicianship, but the latter was apparent in his playing as well. Aside from a tendency to hurry the tempo, the modulations were well rendered. And there was an immediate and appropriate change of mood as well as tone color for the Schumann Romances that followed.

OLD CHURCH IN COHASSET IS BURNED

Flames shooting skyward from the balcony of the First Congregational Church in Cohasset gave the first alarm of the fire which was raging in the interior of the 12-year-old structure where many prominent summer visitors attend services during the vacation period.

The flames had gained fearful headway when the alarm was first sent in, and Fire Chief P. F. Martin, Jr., immediately ordered a general alarm, and called aid from Hurlingham and Scituate.

The old church stands on the town, in the heart of the town, and is surrounded by houses and most by residences, some of them houses of summer residents, and one or two live there all the year round. It is situated on the Town Hall.

would surely fall a prey to the flames. Several times it was men and by sparks and leaping flames, but Chief Martin put one detachment at work under Chief Albert Brown of Hingham protecting the place and carrying out valuable property.

The flames, mounting into the air, brought the curious from all over the district, and when the fire was finally extinguished a crowd of several thousand was on hand.

The interior of the church was burned away, and nothing but the steel remains. The loss was estimated at $25,000.

One volunteer fireman, playing the role of hero, fell out a window of the church. Doctors probed him here and there, but he was not hurt for drunkenness.

SENATE CONFIRMS N. E. APPOINTMENT

$4,000 MORE IN SHIP CO. LOOT RECOVERED

An additional $4,000 of the nearly half a million dollars stolen from the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc., was recovered today. It was announced by Assistant District Attorney Frederick T. Doyle, following a conference with George W. Dooley, charged with the embezzlement.

The latest total of recoveries is $20,245, according to Doyle, including cash, diamonds, stocks and bonds and two deeds of property.

The assistant prosecutor said that the defendant, who is now in jail, asked for a conference today with Doyle and District Attorney Foley. After the conference, a visit was made to the Doyle street branch of a trust company and the money

Boxing finds great favor with Crimson freshmen these days. A large class of yearlings is taking instructions in the art of hitting and ducking and appears to be enjoying it immensely. Photo shows Gil Martin, left, and Joe Mooney swapping blows.

GOLF is assuredly a mystifying game. Even the very best players cannot go out upon the first tee with any assurance of what they will be able to do on a particular day. Abe Mitchell may drive flawlessly today, but he cannot be sure he will do so tomorrow.

B. U. AND B. C. SEXTETS MEET TOMORROW

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it all the grains of acid and waste, so we can really understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water - you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarb, and has been used for years to help cleanse and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent citrus water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Club affords South as opportunity to make a Grand Slam, provided the outstanding club is split 5-3 and East holds the King of Diamonds. Assuming these favorable conditions, and also a 5-3 split of the outstanding trump, South, on count 5 Spade tricks, a Club trick, and 4 Diamond tricks, is in all. To play the hand by his maximum possibility, South must with the first Club trick in his own hand. Following this as usual first on the trump split, taking two trumps and breaking the club, Dummy's first play is to try to run the Club split by leading a Club to the Ace and returning a Club to trump in his own hand.

Should the outstanding Clubs all fall he can then enter the Dummy with the King of trumps, make his small Clubs, and then try the Diamond finesse which, if successful, will provide the Grand Slam.

If the Club break is not favorable, then South has the King of trumps left in Dummy for the Diamond finesse which, if successful, will give him five odd.

monds and his Club suit is not strong enough to warrant a bid of three, his safe course is to pass.

Salient Points of the Play

Trick 2. Upon exposure of the Dummy's hand, containing a single Diamond, West realizes that the only hope for game rests with the Club suit and that such trial may be made in that suit before he has a chance to discard his losers on Dummy's readily established Hearts. Accordingly, West covers his partner's King of diamonds and leads the Queen of Clubs. Jealousy covers with the King to establish a trick in Dummy if the adverse Clubs are divided 4-3. For if West has lost from Queen-Jack alone, had DeLafair remained off in the hope that the Queen might be a singleton, the result would have been the same. West's defense saves the game.

Trick 3. The trumps were West's Jack with a third suit of the suit.

ANOTHER SLEEPLESS NIGHT

You go to bed, desirous but still no sleep. You roll rest. Morning dawns a rag. One of the first effects of a poisoned system is "nervousness," restlessness, sleepless nights. The whole thing is traceable to the modern habits of life which put too great a burden on our vital organs, especially the liver.

The liver becoming "dead" or sluggish fails to remove the toxic poisons from the blood, which then poisons the system, weakening stomach, kidneys and heart, causing high blood pressure and undermining health in general.

It is universally recognized that occasionally the liver needs a little help. Nothing is better for this, say medical men, than ox gall. Ox gall is a great natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning so essential to real health. Do not believe that genuine or gall is dirty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 grains of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Doxol. HERE'S A SIMPLE MENTAL TEST TO TRY ON YOUR HORSE about horses, killing my constituents. I have given the matter considerable study-in fact, I was once kicked in the head by a horse myself. The first thing to do is determine whether or not the horse is sane. Obviously, if the horse is suffering from dementia praecox it doesn't know it is doing any wrong. The only thing to do in that case is let the horse kick and then forgive it. Or kick back.

You can tell if a horse is insane by simply opening and closing an umbrella in its face. If you can't show the umbrella, hold it over the horse's head, as illustrated above. This keeps the horse dry in winter time and prevents it from getting sunstroke or frolics in the summer. Now, are there any more questions?

Infant Care

Mothers, you can't start too early to establish a child's serene and tranquil disposition. Even an infant can have a happy, restless life with the help of a simple, purely vegetable product as old as you are: plain Castoria.

A few drops of Castoria will settle all uneasiness in a jiffy. Will dispel colic, calm the wind off, constipation and just as surely check diarrhea.

In real sickness, call a physician. But many physicians urge only Castoria for those little children who don't need anything more. You need never be afraid to give pure Castoria. It is safe and perfectly harmless, for it contains no narcotics, no opiates, no drops of any kind. At least, this is true of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria—and that is the kind doctors tell you always to buy.

Fletcher's Castoria is fine for any child. All children love to take it. Delicious tasting, and as good as it tastes. Just look for the Fletcher's signature on the package and you have the genuine and pure Castoria.

SPECIAL NOTE: With every bottle of genuine Fletcher's Castoria is wrapped a book on "Care and Feeding of Babies," worth its weight in gold to every mother or prospective mother.
